Experience

2024– PRESENT

Freelance Front-end Developer

I've effectively provided scalable, effective, and high-quality software solutions that are customized to each client's specific requirements as a freelance developer, also created and maintained web applications, optimized performance, and made sure that user experiences are flawless thanks to my proficiency in HTML, CSS and JavaScript. I developed excellent problem-solving, communication, and project management abilities working with a variety of clients. My capacity to adjust to new frameworks and technologies enables me to offer creative solutions that promote user happiness and corporate expansion.

Projects

Frontend CMS

As part of Final Year Project, I developed the frontend of a Campus Management System (CMS) using Tailwind CSS, and JavaScript, ensuring a smooth and user-friendly experience. My focus was on creating responsive layouts, improving UI/UX, and ensuring an intuitive navigation flow.

Cloned Microsoft UI

Designed and implemented the frontend of Microsoft's official website, focusing on responsive layouts, user interface design and cross-browser compatibility by applying clean HTML, semantic CSS and JavaScript to ensure a smooth user experience
